Following is a letter from Corporal Roy Degman:

MANILA, P. I. Dear Mother: I take pleasure in writing you a letter from this side of the world. I am very well and hope you are all the same. I was confused when I wrote from Gibraltar. I was too seasick to write much at that time. December 2d—We have crossed the culars, Statements, Envelopes, Dodgers, Atlantic and are sailing on the Med-Cards, Posters, Pamphlets, Receipts,— December 2d-We have crossed the iterranean Sea. Now I will tell you something about our trip.

December 3d-Weather fine and calm and we are making good speed. At 10 o'clock p. m. two six-inch guns we discharged to tell us land had been sighted from the lookout, and about 3 p. m. we could see land with the naked December 2d-We are just entering "the Strait of Gibraltar and are sailing between the coasts of Spain and Africa and can see both at the same time. At 29:30 a. m. we entered the harbor of Wibraltar. This is the strongest fort in the world. There were eight big English warships there when we left. The fort and Rock were the grandest sights A ever saw. I had a conversation with some English soldiers and they seemed to think the Yankee boys are all of it.

December 4th-I am on guard today but duty is not hard on the ship. The wind is blowing and we have some big waves, but we are used to them now. The sun here now is about like it is in Kentucky when the weather is pleasant an May. This morning we are just outsaide of Malta, another big English port. It is a fine place. They have several large vessels here, also some storpedo boats. They saluted us when we sailed in. We are coaling here, taking on one hundred tons.

December 10th-We reached Port Said at 1:30 p. m., another fine place, where we enter the Suez Canal, from 25 to 50 yards wide. The country is very flat and sandy; can see but very little vege-

December 11th-We are still in the Canal and have been traveling in it all day. I saw great droves of camels and but did not stay long. At 9 p. m. we were about to enter the Red Sea, where Pharaoh and his army were drowned.

December 12th-We passed Mt. Sinai at 7 a. m. My arm is very sore from December 25th-It does not seem much like Christmas, the weather now being as hot as it is in July at home. We had a good dinner today,-turkey, -cranberry sauce and other good things too numerous to mention.

December 30th-We drew up to the sinck at Singapore this morning and comr Company went on shore. This is Record curious, and to us a strange LOST-POCKET-BOOK-Leather, with $1.50 in money, papers and other articles. Return to land the land to the strange of the land to the land t and a half of the equator.

January 4th-We reach Manila. When we were within four or five miles ged the harbor, at 10 p. m., there was a strong searchlight thrown on us. January 5th-I am 19 years old today and wake up on the other side of the world. We are getting tired of the boat, having been on ship 47 days. I would not take a big fortune for my trip. We begin to look like soldiers now. We have everything required for the field. We drew 100 rounds of ammunition yesterday. You must take THE LEDGER so you can see what we are doing all the time. We are now on land and ready for business. The natives were preparing to hold a funeral the other day and our guard held them up and opened the coffin, and behold, it was full of guns for old Aguinaldo and his army. Sly, wasn't it? We are in barracks all made of bamboo poles, an odd-looking sight. We will go to the firing line tonight, and how glad I am. They can't call me a featherbed soldier now. I will close now. From your ROY DEGMAN.

A Convincing Answer. "I hobbled into Mr. Biackmon's Daugstore or evening," says Wesley Nelson of Hamilton, Ga. and he asked me to try Chamberlain's Pain Balm for rheumatism, with which I had suffered for a ng time. I told him I had no faith in any medcine, as they all falled. He said: 'Well, if Cham-berlain's Pain Balin does not help you, you need not pay for it.' I took a bottle of it home and used it according to the directions and in one week I was cured, and have not since been troubled with heumatism." Sold by J. Jas. Wood & Son.

Mr. W. D. Cushman and family will leave Dover soon and will temporarily locate at Newport News, Va.
